Liability Waiver and Camp Agreement: I know that physical activity such as football is a potentially hazardous activity. I will not participate in this event unless I am medically able to do so and properly trained. I assume all risk associated with participation in this event, including but not limited to the effects of weather, traffic, field conditions and field surfaces, falls, and contact with other participants, volunteers, and spectators. I am aware that medical support for this event will be provided by volunteer personnel who may be called upon to provide assistance, including first aid, to me during or after the event. I authorize any such volunteer to assist me or to perform such assistance as in the opinion of such person may be necessary or appropriate. I understand that The Arc of Jefferson County, the sponsors, and the volunteers, and all others assisting in the operations of the event and its supporting and related activities assume no responsibility or liability with respect to my participation in the camp or in any related events. I agree to abide and accept the rules of this camp and any related events as published or otherwise made known to me, and to abide by the decision of any camp officials concerning my ability to safely complete the event. Having read this waiver and release, and knowing these facts, and in consideration of the acceptance of my entry, I for myself and any person entitled to act on my behalf do hereby release The Arc of Jefferson County, all sponsors, volunteers, contractors, subcontractors, directors, officers, agents, attorneys, and representatives from all claims of liabilities of any kind or character arising from my participation in this event or in any related activity, even though liability may arise from negligence or carelessness on the part of persons or organizations named in this waiver.

WHAT IS ABILITY ACADEMY?

Ability Academy began with a dream of NFL star, Matt McCants. He brought his idea to The Arc, and now we work as a team to provide an opportunity unlike any other in the state.

Football lovers ages 10 and up who have intellectual or developmental disabilities will have a chance to participate in a mini-camp teaching football ability beyond their disability. Participants will have the chance, perhaps for the first time, to raise their football IQ and become a part of the pastime of Saturdays in the south. They will be exposed to fundamentals such as offense, defense, scoring, and football terms. Volunteer coaches from college teams and the NFL will work on skill basics such as stretching, passing, catching and running drills.

WHAT PARENTS ARE SAYING

"Jaycob had some reservations about one of the drills so the coach took him by the hand and told him they would do it together. It made my son's day! I can't say enough positive things about Ability Academy. We will definitely sign up again next year!"

Holly Cacciatore
Parent of 2016 participant

"The Ability Academy was the highlight of the summer for my son! Appropriately named, it gave him the opportunity to participate in his favorite sport along with the superstars of football while focusing on his abilities! The Arc staff and these wonderful volunteers were incredibly supportive and encouraging toward our extraordinary children. We loved it and can't wait to do it again! Thank You!"
