

RYAN DELFIN, M.Ed.
VICE PRESIDENT, BLOUNT COUNTY DIVISION

Ryan Delfin is the Vice President over The Arc of Central Alabama's programming in Blount County. Ryan supervises the day and employment programs at campuses in Oneonta and Cleveland, along with the residential supports across the county. He is the liaison to the community, ensuring full integration and acceptance for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Ryan is the only member of The Arc of Central Alabama's senior leadership team to serve in some capacity at three Arcs in the state. He returned to The Arc of Central Alabama in 2014 after serving as the Executive Director of The Arc of Tuscaloosa County for six years. While there, he oversaw the agency's finances, services and staff. Ryan also represented The Arc of Tuscaloosa County at speaking engagements, fundraisers and media events.

Ryan began his Arc career at The Arc of Blount County, prior to its acquisition by The Arc of Central Alabama. He served as its Day Division Director, many times representing the agency in the absence of an Executive Director. Ryan has held the positions of Assistant Director of Employment Services at The Arc of Central Alabama and Program Coordinator at The Arc of Tuscaloosa County. Ryan also worked at Crowne Health Care and the Independent Living Center.

Ryan received his Master of Education degree in Counseling and Development from Auburn University Montgomery and his Bachelor of Science Degree in Psychology and Human Services from Troy State University. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Alabama Association for Persons in Supported Employment and as Secretary for Tuscaloosa Employment Support Services Association. Ryan has also held a leadership role with the Alabama Council of Executives for The Arc. He lives in McCalla with his wife Becky and has a son, a stepson, and a stepdaughter.
